ABOUT ME

I'm Sara Fernandez Rubio, a 25 years old, full-time professional model originally from Spain, currently based in Australia. With years of experience across fashion, editorial, commercial, and promotional modeling, I bring elegance, energy, and precision to every project I'm part of.

My look is versatile, my work ethic is strong, and I take direction with ease, whether I'm walking a runway, creating editorial content, or representing premium brands at events. I've had the pleasure of working with globally recognized companies and top-tier creatives, always delivering with professionalism and passion.
